Owl's Happy Home

Hello friends!
Welcome to my home!

My home is called the Hluttaw.
It is very big and very important for our country.

Many aunties and uncles work in my home to make the country a better place.

They come from all over Myanmar.
They come from the islands and the mountains, from big cities and also from small villages.

These aunties and uncles are called "Members of Parliament". They work hard for all people of Myanmar and together they discuss important things.

They also make rules which we call laws.
For example, they decide together that the children need to go to school.

They do better things after discussing with people in the community.

That is why, if you ever need help with your school or your community, you can go to the Members of Parliament from your neighborhood. He or she can help you to solve the problem.

With the hard work of the Members of Parliament our country will become better. I hope you all now know why my home is so important.
